

EUROPEAN COMMISSION
DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR ENERGY

Final agenda – Seventh meeting of the EU Refining Forum

2 February 2017, 09:00 – 13:00

Charlemagne Building (rue de la Loi 170, 1000 Brussels), Room Jenkins

- Welcome to participants
Dominique Ristori, Director General, DG Energy, European Commission
- Keynote speech
Commissioner Miguel Arias Cañete, Climate Action and Energy
- Energy technology and oil in the transport sector
László Varró, Chief Economist, International Energy Agency
- European refining from a Spanish perspective
Pedro Miró Roig, CEO, CEPSA
Jaime Martín Juez, Director of Technology and Sustainability, Repsol
- ETS – Striking the right balance between reaching our environmental targets and preserving energy intensive industry
Ian Duncan, Member of the European Parliament
- How refineries contribute to local economies: the example of Rotterdam
Allard Castelein, President and CEO, Port of Rotterdam
- Member State update and discussion on refining sector initiatives/studies and developments in domestic refining sector/security of supply
- Low-emission mobility strategy – projections of the future EU fuel mix
Rolf Diemer, Head of Unit, DG Mobility and Transport, European Commission
- FuelEurope's perspective
John Cooper, Director General, FuelsEurope
- Conclusion and closing
Mechthild Wörsdörfer, Director, Energy Policy, DG Energy, European Commission