

EU Scientific Seminar 2018

Management of long-term exposure after a nuclear or radiological accident

Luxembourg, 14 November 2018

starting at 13:30 - ending at 18:00

in Room E

European Convention Center Luxembourg
1, rue du Fort Thüngen, L-1499 Luxembourg (Kirchberg)

Programme

(Version 14 November 2018)

Chairperson: René Huiskamp

Rapporteur: Helena Janžekovič

13:30 – 13:40	The European context: Requirements on the management of long-term exposure in the BSS Directive Bharat Patel, European Commission
13:40 – 14:00	Objectives of the seminar and introduction to the topic Patrick Smeesters, on behalf of the Article 31 WP RIHSS
14:00 – 14:30	(Existing) Regulatory strategies for the management of long-term exposure after a nuclear or radiological accident Jean-Luc Godet, France
14:30 – 15:00	Risk evaluations of long-term exposure after a nuclear or radiological accident (establishment of reference levels) Jelena Mrdakovic Popic, Norway
15:00 – 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 – 16:00	Health surveillance strategies for long-term exposure after a nuclear or radiological accident Elisabeth Cardis
16:00 – 16:30	Stakeholder involvement and research needs Jean-Christophe Gariel, France
16:30 – 17:00	Experience with the management of long-term exposure after a nuclear accident Victoria Drobysheskaya, Belarus
17:00 – 17:50	Round table discussion: Policy implications and research needs Moderator: René Huiskamp Round table: Speakers, representatives from WHO, ICRP, IAEA

17:50 – 18:00	Concluding remarks and closing of the EU Scientific Seminar 2018 Chairperson
18:15	Cocktail