1. Introduction

The European Commission (hereafter ‘the Commission’) is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

This privacy statement concerns the Stakeholder consultation on the list of candidate Projects of Common Interest in cross-border carbon dioxide transport infrastructure in view of the 5th PCI list undertaken by the Data Controller.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: The Data Controller collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the “Stakeholder consultation on the list of candidate Projects of Common Interest in cross-border carbon dioxide transport infrastructure in view of the 5th PCI list” (before, during and after) and process your contribution to this consultation.

At the end of the consultation, the Data Controller will publish the anonymised contributions submitted through a dedicated EU Survey link in the form of a synopsis report.

Your personal data will not be used for an automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

The processing operations of personal data in the context of consultations are necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body and they are lawful under Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. The processing operations are necessary for the management and functioning of the Commission, as mandated by the Treaties, and more specifically Article 11 TEU, and Articles 179 to 181 TFEU and Regulation (EU) No 347/2013 on guidelines for trans-European energy infrastructure.

Stakeholders and the public at large send their contributions to public consultations on a voluntary basis (Article 5(1) (d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725).

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

In order to carry out this processing operation the Data Controller collects the following categories of mandatory personal data considered necessary for the consultation (marked with an *):

- data subject's categories you represent (citizens, industry, academics, public authorities, etc.)
- first name and family name (in case of contributions from citizens);
- organisation, department/service,
- country;

- e-mail address;

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps the data for as long as follow-up actions to the Consultation are necessary with regard to the abovementioned purpose(s) of this processing of personal data, notably regarding the preparation of the synopsis report and the carryout of complementary stakeholder engagement activities.

All personal data will be deleted from databases 1 year after the last action in relation to the Consultation.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, etc.) are stored on the servers of the European Commission. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures in place. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to authorised staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

The Data Controller does not share personal data with third parties for direct marketing, nor makes available personal data related to the participation to the consultation.

The information collected by the Data Controller will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a ‘data subject’ under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, rectify or erase your personal data and the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where applicable, you also have the right to object to the processing or the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

You have consented to provide your personal data to Commission for the present processing operation. You can withdraw your consent at any time by notifying the Commission. The withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.

9. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller, Unit Networks and Regional Initiatives at ENER-C4-PROJECTS@ec.europa.eu.

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the Data Controller.

10. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register>.

This specific processing operation has been included in the DPO's public register with the following Record reference: Legacy notification DPO-3300
