

Guidelines for Good Practice for Storage System Operators

- IFIEC is most disappointed at the slow progress made since the voluntary agreement was reached over 12 months ago
- On the key issue of information release there has been little progress
 - Recently there have been improvements, notably Gaz de France, Fluxys
 - Some other countries appear to have made no progress
 - It is essential that improvements occur without any further delay as markets prepare for Winter