

System operation and balancing guidelines and network codes

- § There exists considerable potential for increase efficiency and lower costs from adoption of best practice concerning balancing mechanisms and procurement of reserve.
- § Clear delimitation is required between intraday markets, balancing mechanisms and system operation actions
- § TSOs should avoid become shadow traders or de-facto operators of generation assets